MANUSCRIPT ACCOUNT OF COLNETT'S WHALING VOYAGE.

- 48 Colnett.—A VOYAGE for WHALING and DISCOVERY round C. HORN into the PACIFIC OCEAN, by James Colnett, Lieutenant in the Royal Navy and Commander in the Merchant Ship Rattler, A.D. 1793-94, MANUSCRIPT JOURNAL, neatly written on 438 pages of Whatman paper, containing 10 pen-and-ink maps, 25 pen-and-ink and water-colour sketches of coast-lines and landfalls, and 2 natural history drawings, 4to., bound in contemporary red morocco gilt, the dedication SIGNED and DATED, "James Colnett, Dec. 13, 1794, Clements Inn."

With printed copy of the book, "Voyage to the South Atlantic and round Cape Horn into the Pacific Ocean for the purpose of extending the Spermaceti Whale Fisheries, 1798," with folding maps, including charts of California, Galapagos Is., &c., 4to., original boards, UNCUT £150

This manuscript of a notable voyage was doubtless prepared for presentation to John Pitt, Earl of Chatham to whom the dedication is addressed, and to whom the Author, some years earlier, had been indebted in the matter of his release from the Spaniards, when captured in Nootka Sound. When printed, however, the book was dedicated to Sir Philip Stephens, one of the Lords of the Admiralty.

THE MANUSCRIPT DIFFERS MATERIALLY FROM THE PRINTED EDITION. IT CONTAINS THE JOURNAL (OR LOG) COVERING THE PERIOD REFERRED TO IN THE BOOK, AND HAS PASSAGES AND INCIDENTS OMITTED FROM THE BOOK. FOR INSTANCE, AT THE END OF CHAPTER 9 THERE IS A LONG STATEMENT ON THE IMPORTANCE WHICH COLNETT ATTACHED TO THE GALAPAGOS ISLANDS AS A BASE FOR BRITISH MARITIME OPERATIONS, THE MAIN PURPOSE OF THE VOYAGE BEING TO DISCOVER SOME SUCH BASE.

Colnett, who served as a midshipman under "the able Captain Cook," and made later voyages to the North-West Coast of America and China, sailed on this whaling voyage in the sloop Rattler, of 374 tons, lent by the Admiralty.

BOTH THE MANUSCRIPT AND THE COPY OF THE PRINTED BOOK ARE IN EXCELLENT STATE.

"This edition is much sought for, in consequence of the beauty of the first impressions of the plates."—SABIN.

Las Casas earned by his zeal on behalf of the oppressed Indians the title of "The Apostle of the Indians." Horror-struck by the cruelties of the early settlers, he returned to Spain in 1516 to plead for the Indians, and during the whole of a long and vigorous life did not cease to fight for humane treatment of the aborigines. To his works can be traced directly a large part of the almost universal horror of "Spanish cruelty." The tracts were made use of by the enemies of Spain and the various issues with illustrations no doubt served to stiffen the resolution of the revolting Dutch.

Fine copy of the very rare narrative of Ulrich Schmidel, who, as a common soldier, accompanied Mendoca and Cabeca de Vaca in their conquest of the countries south of Brazil. When Mendoca visited the Rio de la Plata he named the country Buenos Aires on account of the salubrity of its climate. This book contains the earliest description of the city of Buenos Aires, and has two plates illustrating this description, which are THE EARLIEST ENGRAVED VIEWS OF BUENOS AIRES, one showing the fort, &c., in time of peace, the other an attack on it by Indians.

The fine folding map of South America, dated 1599, often missing, is present in this copy and in fine state. The edges have been strengthened against breakage by a narrow strip of paper pasted all round. The whole book is very clean and in good state. The blank outer margin of page 1 has been repaired.
